

The Winning Entry: An Oracle for the Digital Age

The screenshot shows a web browser window for CoinDesk. The main content area displays a list of winners for the "OriginTrail Track". A large callout box highlights the first three winners:

- 1st Place: Pix x Origintrail Telegram Bot - Tech-Noir I-Ching divinations integrated with the Origin Trail KnowledgeGraph...
- 2nd Place: ... TramNoir I-Ching Telegram Bot - OriginTrail KnowledgeGraph
- 3rd Place: ... Fleetmann I-Ching's - Gragl's OriginTrail

The background shows other entries in the list, such as "Tech-Noir I-Ching divinations integrated with the Origin Trail KnowledgeGraph" and "Fleetmann I-Ching's - Gragl's OriginTrail". The overall theme is the integration of traditional I-Ching divinations with modern blockchain-based knowledge graphs.

"Tech-Noir I-Ching divinations integrated with the Origin Trail KnowledgeGraph will allow users to find interesting patterns across different divinations. How/Why/Does the I-Ching really work? In the future, it will also enable incentivized user-generated content by tracking and tracing authors of highly engaging divination questions and interpretations."
